STATEMENT FROM MAYOR EMANUEL ON FORD COMPANY'S DECISION TO PRODUCE HYBRID POLICE VEHICLES IN CHICAGO

"The City of Chicago is a national leader in combatting climate change and creating a cleaner, more sustainable future. We are proud that the Ford Motor Company has decided to build its new hybrid police vehicles here in Chicago. The new cars coming out of Chicago will cut carbon emissions and save resources for cities and towns across the country, while contributing to our local economy and representing another innovative export from the nation's global transportation hub."
